

BADMINTON AUSTRALIA STATE BASED JUNIOR DEVELOPMENT COACH (Several Positions Available)
--

Position Overview

Reporting to the Chief Executive through the Junior Development Manager and National Junior Coach, Badminton Australia State Based Junior Development Coaches will be responsible for the identification, monitoring and development of junior talent in their particular state.

The primary function of the position will be to identify monitor and adequately develop talented junior players for progression through to national junior and senior teams and squads.

Position Outcomes

State Based Junior Development Coach will be expected to achieve the following position outcomes:

The identification, monitoring and evaluation of junior players

- Effectively identify talented junior players;
- Monitor and report on these players training and performance
- Ensure that these players are sufficiently well prepared to make the transition into the National Senior Squads/Teams.

Key Duties

- In collaboration with the National Junior Coach, play a leadership role in the identification of junior players for the National Squad/National Junior Camps.
- Attend a minimum of one National Junior Camp per year.
- With the use of the Visual Coaching Pro program monitor training programs for all junior squad members in their state/territory
- Maintain effective communication links with personal coaches and association coaches of squad players.
- Develop and maintain effective coach / player relationships.
- With support from the National Junior Development Manager, maintain athlete records and performance information.
- As required, support the National Junior Development Manager and National Junior Coach in the development of high performance plans and funding submissions.
- Attend a minimum of one national age group championships
- Report to the National Junior Coach on player performances during national age group and state tournaments.

Badminton Australia State Based Junior Development Coaches will be engaged for a period of two years (1 January 2010 – 31 December 2011). Badminton Australia will cover all costs for the coach to attend the agreed national age group championships and national junior camp.